The Westchester Women's Bar Association's Diversity & Inclusion Committee Proudly Presents

A Panel Discussion on Police Reform: New York's Executive Order for Necessary Change

Speakers: Dr. Jim Bostic TH.D.S., Minister, Author, Executive Director, Nepperhan Community Center

Jason Clark, Esq., Deputy, New York State Attorney General's Office and Immediate Past-President, Metropolitan Black Bar Association

Kitley S. Covill, Esq., Westchester County Legislator, District 2

Prof. Randolph McLaughlin, Esq., Of Counsel, Newman Ferrara LLP and Professor, Pace University Law School

Moderator: Maria L. Imperial, Esq., CEO, YWCA White Plains & Central Westchester

Date: July 22, 2020

Time: 1:00 to 2:00 PM EST

Location: Zoom link will be provided upon registration

RSVP: By July 21, 2020 online at www.wwbany.org
Not a member? Join today at www.wwbany.org

THANK YOU TO OUR CO-SPONSORS:

WCBA White Plains Bar Association "LEGAL PROFESSIONALS IN PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE"

PCSB bank True Local. True Banking.

BWBA

METROPOLITAN BLACK BAR ASSOCIATION

This program is offered for educational purposes only. The opinions expressed by any program presenter are the presenter's own. They do not reflect the official position of the WWBA, WBASNY or any of the Co-Sponsors. They do not constitute legal advice.

Attendance is limited to WWBA members, members of the co-sponsor organizations and their invited guests.